

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections what-so-ever.

I used to get alot of calls ranging from trying to sell products to promotional offers that I did NOT want and still do NOT want.

I have been VERY PLEASED thusfar with the "Do Not Call" option and hope that it shall stay in this state and be an option for many other states currently considering it.

Thank you,

Glen Bailey